

Welcome

Congratulations on your admission to the Joint Special Operations University

A man in a blue shirt and tie and a woman in a black and white striped dress are standing on a paved walkway next to a body of water. They are both holding and looking at binders. In the background, there is a modern building with large windows and a blue railing. A large, circular, yellow and black logo is visible in the bottom left corner of the page.

Joint Special Operations University

On behalf of the Admissions Department, welcome to the Joint Special Operations University (JSOU). The student support system includes a student café equipped with fresh brewed coffee and snacks for purchase, an ice machine, microwave, and refrigerator/freezer to store your homemade lunches. The Academic Resource Center is equipped with a computer lab, research journals, and small library. Messages will be received by Student Services at (813) 826-3586/3581. Student Services will ensure that your messages are delivered to you as soon as possible. To request official transcripts, please complete an application form available online at https://jsou.socom.mil/Documents/Transcript_Request.pdf.

If you are new to the MacDill AFB/Tampa area, stop by Student Services and receive information on local attractions, hotels, and restaurants. For on-base leisure activities view the 6th Force Support Squadron website at: <http://www.macdillfss.com/default.aspx>. Remember to stop by the Information, Tickets, and Travel (ITT) office located in the Base Exchange to purchase amusement park and sporting event tickets. A list of ITT prices is located at the back of this booklet.

To assist with your research projects, the EBSCO Host database is available in the Academic Resource Center. If you need the user identification and password for the database, please see Student Services. If you need assistance during your stay, please visit our Admissions Department located on the first floor, east wing. We are here to ensure your educational experience with JSOU is the very best.

Regards,

The Admissions Department

Student Café and Academic Resource Center

The café is self-contained with a refrigerator, microwave, coffee maker, ice machine, and snack bar for student use. Coffee and snacks are available for sale and can be taken into the classroom as long as there is a lid and the trash is cleaned up. The Academic Resource Center has six computers for student use that are connected to public internet and have CAC ability. There are also bookshelves with special operations literature available for student use.

Student Messages

Family and units/squadrons may contact the Student Services at: DSN: 299-3586/3581 COMM: (813) 826-3586/3581 and Student Services will ensure you get your message as soon as possible.

Notary Service

Notary service is available, with advance notice, to students while attending JSOU courses. Inquiries can be made with the Admissions Department.

Academic Advising

At JSOU, there is an academic counselor on staff to help with your educational needs. Please stop by the Admissions Department to make an appointment or call the advisor at (813) 826-4246.

Academic Records/Student Transcripts

Official and unofficial student transcripts are available through the Admissions Department. All official transcripts will be sent directly to the organization. Unofficial transcripts will be provided to students. For questions or transcripts call: (813) 826-3581/3580 or electronically by going to the JSOU website: <https://jsou.socom.mil>. Click on the Student Services tab at the top of the page and complete the application form.

Database

At JSOU there is an online database, EBSCO Host, available for student research. If you need to access the database please see Student Services and request the user ID and password. They will need to be signed out and returned after use. The database is available from 0730 to 1500.

JSOU Press

The JSOU Press publishes books, monographs, research reports, occasional papers, and provides publishing support to USSOCOM journals. The publication program helps JSOU, other U.S. warfighters, national leaders, policy makers, academicians, military historians, and other analysts understand special operations. JSOU Press makes a large, varied inventory of publications in print and electronic formats available, which are the result of unique research by military authors and civilian scholars. Publications are provided to military personnel and civilian employees of the U.S. Government free of charge and to the general public at reasonable prices through the Government Printing Office. Some of the publications are offered in the Academic Resource Center for students to read or take home at no cost.

For all other policies and information please refer to the Student Handbook that can be accessed at <https://jsou.socom.mil/Pages/Default.aspx>.

FAQS

Q: If I need to withdraw from a class, who should I contact?

A: If an emergency occurs during your scheduled class, please contact the registrar at (813) 826-3581 and leave a message.

Q: If I am running late for class, who do I contact?

A: Please contact Student Services at (813) 826-3586.

Q: If someone needs to contact me during the course, what number should they call?

A: Please contact Student Services at (813) 826-3586. A message will be taken to the student as soon as possible. If there is an emergency, the student will be pulled out of class immediately.

Q: If I need to print, copy, or electronically send a message, where do I go?

A: There is a printer in the Academic Resource Center for student use. For anything else, Student Services will assist you with any of your class needs.

Q: How do I request college transcripts?

A: Contact one of the registrars at (813) 826-3581/3580, or go online and submit an electronic request.

Q: How can I access my work or home emails?

A: The Academic Resource Center is equipped with computers that allow you to check your personal emails and have CAC readers to check your web email.

Q: Does the University offer a library or research center?

A: The Academic Resource Center has a small library and a bookshelf with dozens of JSOU Press SOF articles/publications.

Q: Where can I go to conduct research on a paper for class?

A: The Academic Resource Center is equipped with computers with a database (EBSCO Host). Contact Student Services for passwords and IDs for the database.

Q: Is there a walking, biking, or jogging trail nearby?

A: Yes, across the street from the university students will find a walking, biking, and jogging trail. The University also provides showers and changing/locker rooms (limited space).

Q: Is there a designated smoking area?

A: Yes, there are two designated smoking areas located near the fence line adjacent to the parking lot. Smoking, to include smokeless tobacco, is not permitted on campus outside of the designated areas. E-cigarettes are not permitted inside the facility. Please treat e-cigarettes as a tobacco product and use them in the designated smoking areas.

SAVE! $

The 6th Force Support Squadron's (6FSS)
Information, Tickets & Travel Office, in the BX Mall, wants to save YOU time and money!

Not all our tickets offer as great a savings as others, but with each ticket, you will save money and avoid paying costly sales tax. Some of the tickets bought for resale are marked with the wholesale or grouped rate price. We reserve the right to add a fair & equitable fee for processing and/or profit before resale.

Commuters can save time, money, and gas by purchasing Hartline Bus Passes from us and let someone else do the driving.

Remember...
We're TAX FREE!

-ALL SALES FINAL-

There are no refunds or exchanges.

ITT is not responsible for lost, stolen or laundered tickets.
